How to Use Smart Start Morning Work:

This program has been developed to cut the prep-time down to a minimum. Simply print and go! We recommend that you provide students with their own morning work binders and add each months activities at the start of the month. Students will quickly develop independence skills as they reach for their morning work binder as they start each morning.

What is Included?

The complete year-long program includes a collection includes 20 worksheets for each month. Monday through Thursday students will work through a variety of kindergarten standards. On Friday students will fold and complete a review book from the weeks practice. This little review book can go home so parents can see what they've been working on.
